MESA PITCH

The Mesa Chamber of Commerce is the creative force behind the Mesa Pitch. As an organization with both 130 years of event organizing history and innovative entrepreneur programming such as the BusinessX Program, Capital Opportunity Program and more, the Chamber is strongly positioned to move the dial and foster a creative class of entrepreneurs in Mesa.

ABOUT

Billed as “Shark Tank meets TED Talk”, six contestants each get to give a three-minute pitch to a set of five judges for their business concept in front of a live audience. The judges are given an additional three minutes to compile scores for each presenter.

The event is hosted by an Emcee to introduce each “pitch contestant”, the judges, and sponsors through the evening. It will be an uplifting, positive evening between pitch music and lights, showcasing Mesa an entrepreneur center.

The top three business receive a cash prize and a suite of products and services provided by sponsors.

Produced by the Mesa Chamber of Commerce, "Mesa Morning Live" is a quarterly morning talk show that discusses a variety of topics with our amazing host Forrest Smith. The show features a diverse lineup of local, state and national guests including community leaders, politicians, celebrities, athletes, local businessmen and women, and more.

A regular segment each month is the highly anticipated "Top Ten" which includes humorous topics such as "Top Ten Ways to Balance Arizona's Budget", "Top Ten ways to avoid weight gain over the Holidays", or simply based on current events. The result is a one-of-its-kind humorous yet informative program televised for the entire community on Mesa's Channel 11.
